FAIR HAVEN YACHT CLUB CELEBRATES 75TH ANNIVERSARY WITH COMMUNITY SAILBOAT RACES, OPEN HOUSE

FAIR HAVEN, NY, AUGUST 18, 2008: The Fair Haven Yacht Club is celebrating the 75th year of its presence on Little Sodus Bay with a community sailboat race and an open house on Sunday September 7th from noon until 4:00PM Commodore Bill Strobel announced today. "We value our place in the Fair Haven community and invite that community to visit us for our open house – come by land or by sea. We would be delighted to show you around the Club" Commodore Strobel went on to say.

In addition to the Open House, a series of fun and non-competitive sailboat races is scheduled to start at noon on the 7th as well with the Fair Haven the community invited to either watch or participate. Further details regarding the races are available from the Yacht Club's Community Liaison and Race Chairman, Sam Colvin, either at (315) 947 5185 or <mailto:samcolvin@rochester.rr.com>
